Team Effectiveness Program

Do you want to:

Focus on the issues and challenges critical to your teams' success?

Be aware of your teams' key strengths and weaknesses?

Can you create space for open and honest dialogue within the team?

Would you like to overcome an obstacle that is holding back the team?

How can the team develop action plans for continuous improvement?

Discovering Team Effectiveness is the next step on the journey of development for intact teams. Designed to explore in more depth the teams colour energies, strengths, weaknesses and team wheel dynamic.

The Team will learn to maximise their effectiveness by tapping into the full potential of colour energies available.

The Insights Team Effectiveness model, aligned with the four colour energies, gives a framework for assessing how effective a team is in four key areas of functioning:- Focus, Process, Climate and Flow.

This will assist the team to identify and focus on the most pressing and important issues for the team's development.

Your team will be able to confront problems they have been struggling with in a positive, practical and engaging way.
